

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY
SUMMERS-ONLY MASTER OF MUSIC EDUCATION DEGREE
WITH EMPHASIS IN CONDUCTING

2009 Cohort (Class of 2011)

Summer 2009

MU510: Foundations of Music Education = 3 credits

MU590B: Workshop in Conducting = 3 credits

*MU531: Music History = 3 credits

Fall 2009

MU695 B: Independent Study in Conducting = 1 credit

Spring 2010

MU590DV: Humanities Workshop (CMEA Conference) = 1 credit

OR

MU696D: Group Study in Music Education (All-State Choir) = 1 credit

Summer 2010

MU521: Junior and Senior High School Music = 3 credits

MU556 Advanced Conducting = 3 credits

*MU518: Analytic Techniques = 3 credits

Fall 2010

MU695B: Independent Study in Conducting = 1 credit

Spring 2011

MU590DV: Humanities Workshop (CMEA Conference) = 1 credit

OR

MU696D: Group Study in Music Education (All-State Choir) = 1 credit

Summer 2011

MU590: Workshop in Rehearsal Techniques & Performance Practice = 3 credits

MU696B: Group Study in Conducting = 3 credits

*MU630: Methods of Music Research = 3 credits

TOTAL CREDITS: 31

During final semester of coursework, successful completion of written and oral examinations must occur before Master's Degree is awarded

You are required to complete 3 credits each in graduate level theory, research and history. These classes are offered in a 4-week summer session on campus immediately preceding the Conducting Seminar. These classes are also offered on campus during the school year and online through*

CSU. CSU can also transfer a maximum of 6 credits in these courses from NASM-accredited universities.